Firemen fight five hour horse barn fire

It took eight pieces of Antioch's fire fighting equipment, along with tankers from Trevor and Spring Grove, to put out a fire the destroyed 40 percent of a large horse barn owned by Eugene Schwieger, on Rte. 173, in Antioch Township.

Antioch Fire Chief Todd Maplethorpe said that his department received the fire call at 5:55 p.m., on Wednesday, Oct. 21.

"There were 3,000 bales of hay stored in the barn so we assume that the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion because of the hay storage," said Maplethorpe.

The fire chief estimated damage to the barn at approximately $75,000 plus whatever the value of the ruined hay was.

The fire was not easily squelched as attested to by the return of Antioch's fire engines to the fire station at 11:15 p.m., five hours after they had left it in the capable hands of the Lake Villa and Fox Lake Fire Depts. in case another emergency arose.

Several Clydesdale horses and a race horse were removed from the barn unharmed.

Two fire fighters suffered minor injuries but refused aid from the rescue squad that had been called.

Wessinger gets 5 years, sentence Holbek Nov. 3

U.S. Attorney's offices in Milwaukee and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. capped an almost two year investigation into what turned out to be one of the biggest marijuana smuggling rings importing the contraband into the United States, with the conviction of some of the dope smuggling ring's top men.

The ring operated by bringing in the marijuana via the coastal waters of Florida and distributing it in the midwestern states, transporting it northwards in a fleet of motor homes.

Couriers were used to bring the drug into Illinois and Wisconsin among other states.

According to federal authorities the multi-million-dollar dope ring, started in 1973, was responsible for the importation of over 700,000 pounds of marijuana in an 18 month period in 1977 and 1978 alone.

Herman Holbek, 31, former Antioch resident living in Camp Lake, and Ronald Wessinger, 31, Bristol, were named number three and four in the list of top honchos in charge of the ring that was reportedly

ACHS teacher killed during morning jog

Anna Helene Kugler, 24, math and science teacher at Antioch High School, was killed while jogging on North Ave. between Tiffany Rd. and Rte. 83 in Antioch, at 6:14 a.m., on Friday, Oct. 23.

Reports have Kugler pronounced dead at St. Therese Area Trauma Satellite, Lake Villa, at 7:30 a.m.

Kenneth Hartog, 20, Trevor was driver of the truck that struck the 24-year-old jogger.

Kugler reportedly was struck and dragged beneath the westbound truck's undercarriage while she was jogging east on the shoulder of the road.

Neither Chief Miller or Lt. Fisher of the Antioch Police Dept. were available for comment on the incident.

Chamber makes local holiday promotion plans

by GLORIA DAVIS

The retail committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry held their monthly meeting at the Country House, on Friday, Oct. 23.

Committee Chairman Sandy Siegmeier led the discussion on the four major events sponsored by the retail committee during the year.

Dollar Days were set for Feb. 18, 19 and 20. Don Marski suggested that the Chamber spend more money for the stores to advertise the event as a whole.

It was agreed by all those present that the Midnight Madness promotion should be dropped for the late summer of 1982 and instead serious thought be given to a fallfest type promotion in late September or early October.

It was also the consensus of the group that this year's Maxwell St. Days had been a success as usual but that the addition of some more food stands on the street during those days, run by one of the community organizations, might be a welcome added attraction.

It was decided that this year's Christmas promotion be much the same as last year, continuing the theme of "The Spirit of Christmas Begins In Antioch."

The Christmas kick-off will again coincide with the village's Christmas tree lighting, along with the arrival of Santa Claus, on the Friday after Thanksgiving.

There will be hayrides again this year. Siegmeier said that she would check with the businesses as to their preference on Christmas shopping hours and would recommend that the stores stay open the days and hours preferred by most of the retailers.

There was also a discussion on the possible replacement of the speaker stolen from on top of the Ben Franklin building so that Antioch can again have Christmas music playing during the holiday season.

Dixie Sparks, Chamber secretary, announced tentative plans being made for a fashion show, put on by the local merchants, to be held the first week in December. More information will be released as soon as plans are fixed.

Drug conviction

responsible for the importation of one out of every six pounds of marijuana brought into the country in the late 1970's.

Both men pled guilty to 11 counts of drug smuggling and two counts of federal income tax evasion. Wessinger was sentenced to five years in prison and a $35,000 fine by Federal Judge John W. Reynolds, in a Milwaukee Federal Court, on Friday, Oct. 16.

U.S. Attorney Charles Bohls had asked for an eight year sentence for Wessinger. Both men were originally also charged with violation of the King Pin Statute, running a drug smuggling ring for profit or continuing a criminal enterprise, the maximum penalty for which is life imprisonment and $170,000 fine.

That charge was dropped when the men agreed to plead guilty on all other counts.

When asked why that charge had been dropped when the government investigators claimed to have plenty of evidence to convict Wessinger and Holbek of that violation, Bohls replied that the 13 other charges carried a maximum penalty of 70 years in prison, with parole, a possible 35 years, making both men old enough upon release that additional cost of the trials was considered unnecessary.

"It is our feeling that there is not much point in going to court since the judge is aware of all the evidence," Bohls said.

Holbek is slated for sentencing in front of Judge Reynolds on Tuesday, Nov. 3, at 1:30 p.m.

According to Bohls, he has not decided what penalty to ask for Holbek but he expects Holbek's sentence to be "heavier" than that received by Wessinger.

According to Lurana Snow, U. S. Attorney, Ft. Lauderdale, who has been working on the case for almost two years, John Steinberg, Ft. Lauderdale, president of the multi-million-dollar organization and James Bell, Schaumburg, number two man in "The Business," were found guilty on 10 drug related counts in a U.S. District Court, Ft. Lauderdale, on Wednesday, Oct. 7, after a six-week trial that had the jury out for four and one-half hours.

Both men are expected to be sentenced within the next 30 days. They face a minimum sentence of 10 years in prison and a maximum sentence of life imprisonment and $170,000 fine and forfeiture of all assets.

In all, 19 people were criminally charged in connection with the case. Steinberg, Bell, Holbek and Wessinger have been convicted, and 13 boat loaders have pled guilty and face 24 to 48 months in prison.

John A. Kramer, 39, Burlington, pled guilty to two counts of conspiring to deliver drugs and three suspected members of the organization are still fugitives, Pete Wagner, Kenosha, Lynn Mizer and Carmen Battaglieri, both of Florida.

Snow commended the Wisconsin authorities for their help in investigating and prosecuting the case.

Among the alleged drug couriers granted immunity for testifying in the case were: Keith, Susan and Pauline Mc Allister, Silver Lake; John Jeske, Silver Lake; Michael Millavich and Raymond Sasso, Chicago.

The prosecutors for the government contended that Holbek has not been gainfully employed since 1972 and produced documents showing that he had a taxable income of almost $300,000 in 1977 and 1978 alone on which $100,000 in back taxes was owed.

One of the biggest breaks in the FBI investigation of the ring may have been the testimony given them by Robert Straus, 29, former ring member, after they rescued him in late 1979 from a barn on the southern Wisconsin-northern Illinois border where he had been held for ransom by another gang member in order to get Steinberg to pay an alleged debt.

Steinberg refused to pay the ransom.

Steering committee for evaluation set

Antioch High School Supt. Warren Polley, recently announced the names of the steering committee members who will direct the school's efforts during its self-study and North Central Assn. (NCA) evaluation.

The committee will be composed of seven members and will be chaired by Gary Allen, who is director of curriculum.

The other members of the committee are: Jane Abramson, Art Blecke, Adrian Mueller, Ward Lear, Peter Pekkarinen and Fran Waible.

NCA membership requires that a school undergo a self-study and an evaluation once every seven years.

It is the responsibility of the steering committee to coordinate the school's self-study, establish the time schedule for both the self-study and the outside team visit, synthesize all the reports from the various staff subcommittees, and make the necessary preparations for the visit by the evaluation team.

According to Steering Committee Chairman Gary Allen, the evaluation being undertaken by the school will involve "a thorough review of the school's program and operations. The core inquiry will be on the extent to which the teaching and learning activities within the school carry out its major purposes."

Antioch Community High School was last evaluated in 1975. The school has maintained full accreditation since it received NCA membership in 1934.

The North Central Association, the nation's largest regional accrediting association, is a voluntary league of some 4,000 secondary schools and 650 colleges and universities within a 19-state region.

The association works with individual schools and institutions to improve the quality of education at all levels through a continuous process of accreditation and evaluation.

50 YEARS AGO: OCTOBER 29, 1931

Lee McDonough, Waukegan plumbing contractor and former state representative, will be a candidate for state senator in the Republican primary next April. He will oppose the incumbent, Senator Ray Paddock of Wauconda, who is expected to run for re-election.

Among suits to be heard today and tomorrow before Judge F.A. Geiger in Federal Court in Milwaukee are the Brass Ball Tavern and the Fairway Grill, which were raided by federal prohibition agents.

An advocate of calendar simplification for a number of years and user of the 13-period, Moses B. Colsworth calendar since last January, Frank R. King, proprietor of King's Drug Store, and one of Antioch's most progressive business leaders, is convinced that our present calendar system is clumsy, defective and a sort of hangover from a by-gone age, causes confusion and affects all the processes of civilization, especially in the business world. "The 12-month calendar is a joke," said Mr. King.

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Thompson and Helen attended church services in Zion Sunday morning and heard Paul Rader.

30 YEARS AGO: NOVEMBER 1, 1951

The Antioch Rescue Squad gave first aid to Sherman Ferry, 17, for head injuries received when he fell from a moving pickup truck Monday evening. Sheriff's deputies said Ferry and Edward Streicher were standing in the back of the pickup truck driven by Richard Champlin. It was said the boys had been dumping outdoor toilets as a Halloween prank and that one of the buildings was being hauled on the truck when it fell on Ferry.

Lake County is getting set for a rat killing. Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas states that he has arranged for warfain bait distribution, Nov. 9 is D-Day for the rats also for the mice.

The Cardinal Bus Line which abandoned its line from Antioch to Waukegan by way of Fox Lake recently without notice is in bad with the Wisconsin State Public Service Commission for a similar offense.

What is believed to have been the most successful Homecoming in the history of Antioch Township High School took place last Thursday and Friday evening. Denise Chrishop was crowned queen by Harry Larsen, football captain. She was escorted by Ronald Scully. The queens attendants were Shirley Mani, Marlene Wertz, Donna Martin and Rosemary Wolf.

Members of Den 5 are: Lee Quirk, Dan Purfeerst, Kirt Sarfont, Doug O'Connor, Doug Niemi, Jeff and Jim Andres and Kurt Larsen.

Members of Den 4 are: Tim Conklin, Mike Bailey, Jeff Marrcussen, David Miles, Dan Hucker, Bobby Rudolph, Rich Rogers and Webloes helper Donnie Behrens.

When I think about it

Halloween is time to be someone else

by GLORIA DAVIS

Halloween is almost upon us again. It's the one time during the year when we can be someone else without our friends pushing the panic button and alerting the little men in the white coats.

Of course this is the traditional trick or treat day for the kids and mothers everywhere will be spending this week putting costumes together, creating six-year-old princesses, seven-year-old witches, eight-year-old pirates and nine-year-old spacemen.

This year there will probably be many an adult flitting across the Halloween moon since it falls on a Saturday.

In order to save them some time, because of their busy agendas, may I be so bold as to suggest, all in fun of course, some fitting costumes for a few of our well-known Halloween celebrants.

I think that Mayor Jane Byrne of Chicago should go to her masked ball dressed as George Washington, complete with a rhinestone-trimmed hatchet. The better to do her chopping my dear, and I don't mean cherry trees.

All that Governor Dreyfus of Wisconsin has to do is wear a green or yellow vest if he doesn't want anyone to know him. I hear after last week, many of his state's mayors would prefer it that way.

Maybe President Reagan should don a pin-striped suit, a slouch hat and a shoulder holster so he can make some of Washington's more troublesome senators an offer that they can't refuse.

I'd love to see Brooke Shields in pigtails, freckles and a pinafore, carrying a teddy bear. But then she'd probably just name it Calvin and fall in love with it.

Despite Sunday's hopeful performances, all the members of the Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Packers would really be masquerading if they dressed as football players.

With no disrespect meant, I bet our first lady would look good in Shields' Calvin Kleins. We'll even let her top them with a mink-trimmed t-shirt that says "Ron Quixote's the Man For Me."

A real way-out costume for the Ayatollah Khomeni might be that of a rational human being, but then he probably wouldn't know what one looks like.

Can't you just picture Jane Fonda dressed as Betsy Ross, the only question being, "What flag would she be working on?"

The Hunt Brothers could probably dress as the Blues Brothers with feeling and Orson Wells will have to go as Orson Wells, since, in his own time, his size puts him in the same category as a man on a camel and smoke when it comes to hiding ability.

The average mother should don wings and a halo, heavens knows she deserves them and Dad should be allowed to go as a cowboy or a firman or whatever his childhood dream conjured. Maybe he'd rather just wear his favorite old beat-up fishing hat and go as Capt. Ahab.

So disguise yourself to your heart's content this Saturday, after all everyone loves to be someone else once in awhile. Even people who strive to become famous and have their faces known world-wide have been known to wear dark glasses to hide their identity.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Dixie Sparks tells me that the new maps of Antioch are available at the Chamber office for $1 each. Call and reserve please.

The Antioch Lower Grade School bid a fond farewell to one of their most beloved staff members recently when Lena Dalgaard retired after serving the school as its secretary for 18 years.

Lena said that she was just thrilled with all the flowers she received.

"It was a joy to work with the children and the teachers," she said.

Lena and her husband say they have many fun things planned.

Betty and Ken Smouse are the proud grandparents of a bouncing baby boy born to their daughter Betsy and the late Ronnie Summers.

Robert Michael Summers weighed in at 7 pounds 8 ounces on Oct. 8.

The Lonnie Summers of Mundelein are the paternal grandparents.

Congrats to Mrs. Kenneth (Dawn) Kasuboski, who received her bachelor of arts degree from Lake Forest College.

The Antioch Methodist Church's Annual Fall Bazaar will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., on Saturday, Nov. 7, at Wesley Hall. Lunch will be served from 11 a.m., adults $3, children, $2.

I think I'll probably do a lot of my Christmas shopping, as usual, at one of their lovely Christmas booths.

Our most heartfelt get well wishes to Russ Fairchild's better half, Ginger, who is a patient in the critical care unit at Victory Memorial Hospital after suffering a severe stroke on Sunday, Oct. 18.

Russ asks for everyone's prayers and is sure that Ginger would welcome cards from her friends.

No visitors or flowers please.

There were so many pretty floats in the homecoming parade but I really loved "The Best of Both Worlds" the winner in the outside school division.

It was sponsored by the Antioch Little League.

I'm digging out my four leaf clover and all my rabbits feet before I attend the Las Vegas night sponsored by Prince of Peace Parish, Lake Villa, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Nov. 7.

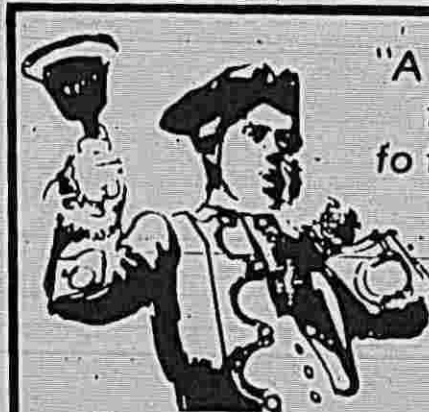

The evening will be complete with a Las Vegas revue. Tickets are $2.50 in advance and $3 at the door.

I have some good and bad news about Larry Rodgers, 13 year old quarterback for the Antioch Viking senior football team.

The good news is that his picture was on the cover of a local daily newspaper's tv section on Oct. 3.

Sad to say, Larry broke a leg playing in Waukegan the next day, but you can never keep a football lover down, as he proved by attending his favorite Chicago Bears game on Oct. 11, cast and all.

Notes about Antioch's military sons: Navy Seaman James Springer, son of James and Betty Springer, Fairview St., has just completed recruit training at the San Diego Naval Training Center; Airman Mitchell Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Case, Rte. 3, who graduated from the Air Force aircraft maintenance course at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, is now serving at Dover Air force Base in Delaware.

5 seek seats on CLC school board

Four candidates will be on the ballot for two seats on the College of Lake County board of education.

Filing petitions are Leslie Ollie of Zion, Maria Cejtin of Waukegan and Millicent Berliant of Deerfield and Nancy Block of Prairie View.

There is also one announced write-in candidate, Charles January Jr., president of the College of Lake County student body.

Block has been married 18 years and is a homemaker and student. As a graduate of CLC, Block says she has a "good understanding of the needs and a genuine concern for the school."

"As a taxpayer, I will be sensitive to the spending of tax dollars."

She said she is running because of the encouragement and support of the CLC faculty.

Block said priorities would be to continue to provide citizens a quality education and instruction, provide effective use and protection of tax dollars and provide community programming and services according to need.

Leslie Ollie is a professor at Chicago State University who is married and has two children and two grandchildren.

"I feel I am qualified, interested and motivated to serve the college as a member of the board," said Ollie. "I would bring to the board years of experience as an educator and administrator."

"The level of participation and involvement of the community," is an important issue to Ollie, as are the level of support for the college and the "quest for academic excellence."

Maria Cejtin is married and has three grown children. "I believe in public higher education and am impressed with my exposure to the college as a student and a member of the community. I would like to help maintain this institution and contribute to its improvement," said Cejtin.

"My experiences have convinced me that superior educational institutions are those with outstanding teachers. Today, many institutions put most of their resources into buildings and elaborate facilities, but neglect instructional quality. I would hope CLC would continue to emphasize teaching quality."

Berliant is a real estate agent with Quinlan and Tyson Realtors and a former county board member. She would like to see "the southern portion of the county represented on the CLC board. Also, I have a great interest in educational issues, having served on the Deerfield board as both vice president and president."

"The CLC board will be facing the same problems in the area of finances as other governmental units," she added.

January, the write-in candidate, is a graduate of North Chicago High School. He plans to attend a four-year college next year to work for a degree in business administration, but says he'll be staying in the area.

Voters casting ballots for the CLC school board will also be asked to vote on a referendum item to decide if terms of board members should be increased from four to six year terms.

Polling places will be the same as local school elections. Polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Women learn to paint

After the business meeting, Jan Malczewski of "The Magic Art Studio" demonstrated how to paint pictures with large brushes. Her first picture was a mountain scene and the second one was a painting of a vase with tulips on a black background. This was donated to the club and was won by Jane Wierschen.

The hostesses were Eileen Zannini, Georgia O'Malley, Ann Kelly, Patricia Kanaby, Carol Jester, Shirley Jensen, Gloria Graham, Jane Pederson, Ann Simbrowsky, and Ann Harkensee.

Some of the members have been working during the summer making ornaments for an artificial Christmas tree that will be raffled off at the December meeting.

The tree will be on display at "Four Squires Apparel Shop" the last two weeks of November.

The proceeds are to be used for scholarships to high school students of the Antioch High School. Tickets may be secured from members of the club.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 2 at the State Bank of Antioch in the community room. The program for that day will be on silk and craft creations by Mrs. Joan Vitello.

Polsons products geared to natural health

by GLORIA DAVIS

Last weekend Polsons' Dietary Food Store had the grand opening of its new store in Antioch. Although natural vitamins and health foods are an extremely popular trend today with the nostalgic return to basic foods really in vogue, it might surprise you to find out that Polsons' has been dealing in these commodities as far back as 1926.

That was the year that Alfred Polson opened his health food store in Chicago, specializing in whole grains, fruits, herbs and fresh ground peanut butter.

That one store proved so successful that soon it grew into a chain of three stores and a restaurant.

In 1930, Polson opened a bakery that specialized in goods made of all natural ingredients.

Polson's son Ronni, who had been involved in the business for many years, moved to a farm in Antioch Township with his wife Jerri in 1954 and opened a health food store on the farm, moving to the north end of Antioch's Main St. in 1963.

During these years, the addition of preservative and artificial ingredients to many commercial foods caused a growth of the health food industry, sparked by those who preferred good old-fashioned naturalness.

The interest in these basics also accounted for the increase interest in natural vitamins.

Although Ronni and Jerri's son Mark, who is very involved in the management of the large new location at 960 Main St., says that the most valuable product that Polsons has to offer is the mound of information garnered by his father in 54 years in the health food business, customers travel for many miles to purchase their whole grain flours, milled freshly right on the premises.

Rye, barley, whole wheat, pastry flour, oat and rice are among these specialties.

Polsons is a family business, geared to servicing the entire family. Ronni and Jerri's other son Randi are responsible for the management of their other location in Zion, opened in 1979.

The demand for the large variety of natural vitamins and minerals Polsons carries has grown with the increased publicity that the medical profession has given the need for these supplements since most grocery shelf foods are full of preservatives, artificial ingredients and lack the necessary nutrients for a healthy balanced diet.

Their cosmetic counter draws many customers whose allergies prevent them from using the drug store cremes and oils, shampoos and soaps that contain many chemicals and again preservatives.

Polsons even have a "snack food" section, the difference being that their potato chips, cookies and crackers are made from natural ingredients that makes them nutritious unlike their "junk food" cousins. The great variety of nuts carried by Polsons is another popular item.

THE DUTCH ARBOR PRESENTS

Area school boards offer 2 4-year terms

The election for members of the school boards in the Antioch area will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Antioch Township residents will be asked to vote on a referendum that will decide whether to change the present four-year Antioch High School (ACHS) Board term to a six year term.

The result of this referendum will apply only to the terms of the ACHS board members.

ACHS Superintendent Warren Polley says, "The reason that we're putting it on the ballot is because we feel that the longer term gives the board more continuity and stability."

Polley also adds that the six year term would keep more incumbents on the board on election day.

There are three candidates on the Nov. 3 ballot running for the two open seats for a four year term on the ACHS board: incumbents Tony Starcevic and Glen Moore and challenger Julie Portalski.

There are also three candidates running for the two open four year seats on the board of Antioch Grade School District 34: incumbents Ed Haley and Clint Glover and challenger James Carey.

With two open four year seats on the ballot for the Grass Lake School Board, six people are running: incumbent Robert Mattson, and challengers James Zegler, John Fleshman, Judy Hansen, Patricia Sherwood and Ardeen Harris.

Four names will appear on the ballot for the two open four year seats on the Emmons Grade School board: incumbents Don Lessard and Richard Ruck and challenger Pam Pierson. Sandy Steffenburg, who was appointed to the board for a term completion, is running for that same two year term.

Giants coming to PM&L

The next play to be offered at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St., Antioch, is Otis Bigelow's "The Giants' Dance." This imaginative spectacle is scheduled to open Saturday night, Nov. 14.

Following performances are set for Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 20, 21, 27 and 28.

There will also be a matinee presentation Sunday afternoon, Nov. 22. The curtain will rise at 8:30 p.m. for the evening performances and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

The story of "The Giants' Dance" is set in fifth century England, when, you must admit, anything could happen. The play boasts spectacular magic, exciting sword play, a striking setting, colorful costuming, stately kings and queens, romantic princes and princesses, and eye-filling pomp and pageantry.

There is little more that an audience seeking an afternoon or evening of engrossing theater could desire.

The PM&L production is directed by Lou Jones of Round Lake. He has assembled an exciting and experienced cast which includes, from Round Lake, Frank Greenwood as Arch Druid Grigas and Cris Jones as Ethelred; from Zion, Frank DiMarco as General Nud; from Wildwood, Steve Beno as Eleric; and, from Salem, Paul Master as Rufus.

Cast members from Antioch are Dave Carlson as Geoffrey; Aileen Biel, Boudicca; Dawn Champly, Alissande; Larry Bersie, Yvain, Bruce Stamm as Merlin the magician; and Tom Hausman as Ambrose the king.

While "The Giants' Dance" should not be thought of as a children's play, it is good theater for the entire family.

Gutowski is capped

The October business meeting of the Women of the Moose was attended by 40 members. Balloting on new members was held before the reports of the committees were given.

Marge Muse, the Moosehaven chairperson thanked everyone on her committee and all the co-workers for the response to their Western Ho! Dinner-Dance.

The project, as reported, was extremely successful. Virginia Flood, Mooseheart chairperson, after reading committee report, reminded the members of the multi-raftle held after the meeting.

Louise Gutowski announced she was going to Dubuque, Iowa on Oct. 25 to receive her green cap. A special meeting in March is planned to honor Louise for receiving this honor. The green cap signifies the successful year the chapter achieved last year when Louise served as senior regent.

The next enrollment meeting will be held Nov. 5, at 8 p.m.

Carole reports: Carole: 'Polio check a must!'

by CAROLE RISKA

Immunity to polio shouldn't be taken for granted among young adults. Persons born in 1960, 1961 and 1962 may not have been immunized by childhood vaccinations.

The polio vaccine given to these adults when they were children should have received three doses of the Salk vaccine, this type of immunization was given from August 1961 to June of 1963.

The Salk vaccine was replaced by the Sabin oral vaccine in 1963. The Sabin vaccine gives lifelong immunity to polio.

Nancy Peterson, director of public relations for the Lake County Dept. of Health said this is not a "panic situation at all, but young adults should check with their personal physicians to be sure that they are effectively immunized."

Peterson said that "the Salk mono-valent vaccine should have been followed at a later date with the tri-valent Sabin oral vaccine."

Because immunization requirements when these people started school were not as stringent as they are now, there is a chance that some people never had the tri-valent polio vaccine.

The Lake County Health Dept. will not give polio immunizations to anyone over 18, said Peterson, "because there is a benefit vs. risk factor, but if an adult in this age group plans to travel they should check their immunization records with their physicians, or they should check their personal records to be sure that they are protected."

Peterson also said that if anyone needs help interpreting their records, the Lake County Health Dept. will assist them by phone.

The polio virus attacks the spinal fluid and causes a breakdown of the central nervous system and it can leave its victims with paralysis and permanent deformity.

In extreme cases, the polio virus causes dysfunction of the respiratory system and the swallowing mechanisms.

Polio virus is transmitted person-to-person-but it can live in the environment. The last recorded outbreak in the U.S. was more than two years ago among the Amish people in Indiana.

The disease can still be found in third world countries.

Peterson said that the Lake County Dept. of Health has a movie available to any group that is interested called "A Gift, An Obligation" that stresses the importance of all immunizations.

The Lake County Health Dept. is in Antioch every third Thursday of the month at St. Peters Church.

For more information, call the Lake County Immunization Clinic, (312) 689-6761.

Sequoits top Panthers, rushing leads to 28-8

The Antioch varsity football team outrushed Round Lake to swamp the Panthers 28-8, in a game played in unseasonably cold weather, at Round Lake, on Saturday, Oct. 24.

Antioch put their first score on the board with 5:33 left in the first quarter when Mike Kotlinski made a touchdown and Derek Olsen's kick was good.

With 6:44 to go in the first half, Scott Poulter completed a pass to Bob Thain in a 14 yd. play that led to a touchdown but the conversion kick was deflected, making the score Antioch 13, Panthers zip, at halftime.

Kotlinski took another one over with 7:41 left in the third quarter and with Olsen's kick good, Antioch went up on the boards 20-0.

Another third quarter touchdown by Kotlinski was set up by Craig Sheedlo's interception which he returned to the five yd. line.

Kotlinski took the conversion over to add two more points on the Antioch side. That was the end of Antioch's scoring.

Round Lake came to with 4:44 left in the final quarter when a 44 yd. pass and a two point conversion put their one and only score on the board.

Antioch rushed 56 times to gain 322 yds. and Round Lake tried 24 times to gain 59 yds.

The Sequoits had 17 pass attempts with eight completions, gaining 62 yds. and the Panthers passed 50 times, completing 17 for 23 yds.

Kotlinski had 19 carries for 124 yds, three touchdowns and one, two-point conversion.

George Bessette carried 22 times to gain 143 yds.; Matt Stevens carried five times, gaining 20 yds.; Tom Andersen had four carries for 11 yds.; Bill Carney had two carries for four yds.; Pete Kessler had one carry for 13 yds.; Bob Van Gemert had one carry for three yds.; Andy Lehn had one carry for one yd. and John Silianoff had one carry for three yds.

Poulter's pass record was 50 percent and Thain was the leading Antioch receiver, making five catches for 53 yds. and one touchdown.

Offensive Line Coach Del Pechauer commended the interior linemen for the best performance of the year, listing: Kevin Kovach, Ed Jorgensen, Chris Becker, Ralph Buxton, John Lloyd and Kris Vogt.

Defensive standouts were Dean Berkiel with five tackles, three assists, one interception and two passes knocked down; Steve Sheedlo, One interception, two passes knocked down.

Sequoit Coach Steve Wapon said, "I was not surprised that the Panthers went to the air so much. Their quarterback has a good passing arm and they have good receivers."

On Saturday, Oct. 31, it will be trick or treat time for Antioch who will play Grant in Antioch.

Antioch to host district

Antioch Community High School will host the IHSA District Volleyball Tournament on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 28-29.

Antioch and Round Lake open up the tournament at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday. The second match will see Grant and Grayslake tangle 25 minutes after the completion of the Round Lake - Antioch match.

The finals will be held on Thursday, Oct. 29 at 7:30 p.m.

The winner of the Antioch District will advance to the Rockford East Sectional and will play the winner of the Rockton Sectional.

Round Lake is the favorite in the local tournament, but any one of the four teams are capable of winning the trophy and advancing to the Rockford East Sectional.

Round Lake has played a steady game, but Grayslake has come on strong in the last half of the season. Grant has always done extremely well in the local tournament.

Antioch could be a real dark horse if they can get their game going with some consistency. Regardless of who represents the local area, there should be two nights of outstanding volleyball.

CANCER CLASS

St. Therese Hospital and the Lake County Unit of the American Cancer Society will co-sponsor a seminar on breast self-examination held in the community room of the St. Therese Area Trauma Satellite, Route 59, Lake Villa, on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 7:30 - 9 p.m. For further information call (312)356-6600 (St. Therese Satellite) or (312)578-2702 (Hospital's Education Department).

OPEN HOUSE

On Sunday, Nov. 8, Carmel High School for Girls and Carmel High School for Boys will host an open house at the school located in Mundelein. Doors will be open from 2 until 5 p.m. for prospective students and their families, and for anyone else who may be interested. There will be a Mass at 2 p.m. and tours of the building will begin at 2:45 p.m. The open house is designed especially to help September, 1982 freshmen become acquainted with Carmel.

Antioch bowlers donate

Marty Padjan, co-owner of the Antioch Bowl, representing the Chicagoland Bowling Proprietors Assn., presented the donations collected from the Beat The Champs Contest to local organizations.

In December each year, the Chicago Sun-Times sponsors the Beat The Champ Contest.

League bowlers contribute 50 cents and bowl against scores bowled by two professional bowlers.

The money collected from the bowling alleys is then donated to organizations in their local area.

Last year Antioch Bowl had 35 leagues represented with a total of 1,163 entries.

The top man and woman bowler in the establishment advanced to the sectional.

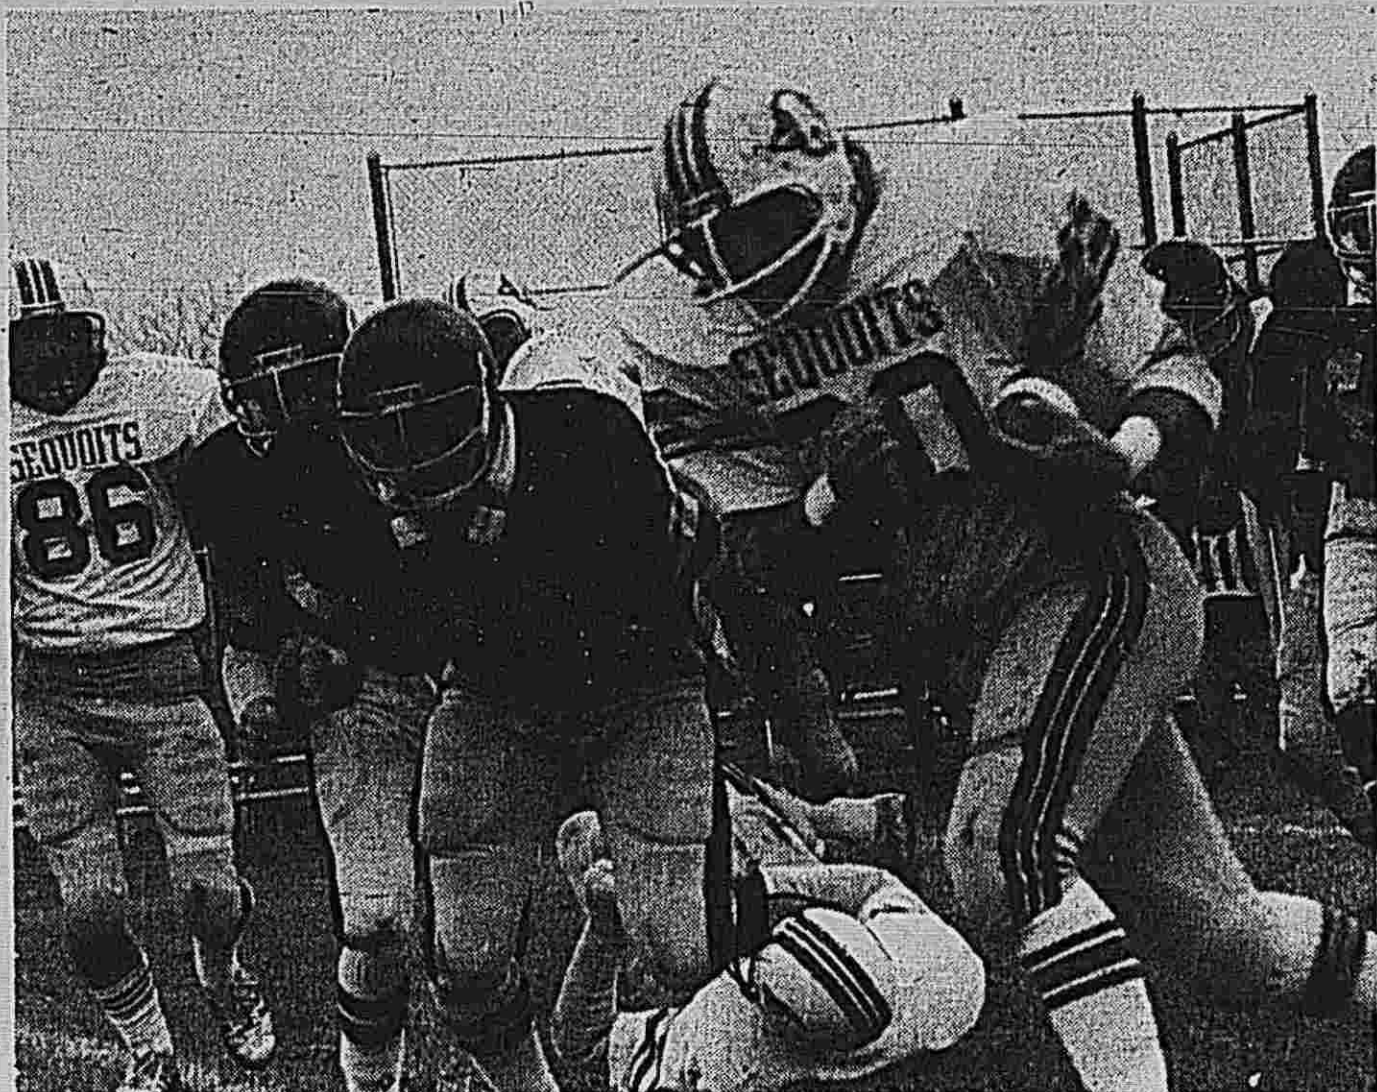

Antioch's representatives were Dave Gates and Audry Laehr.

The organizations receiving donations in the area are The Antioch Little League, represented by Denis Flaschner; the Antioch Viking Football, represented by Nick Papadakis; The Antioch Rescue Squad, represented by Dave Heath and the Antioch Firefighters Assn., represented by Vern Burdick.

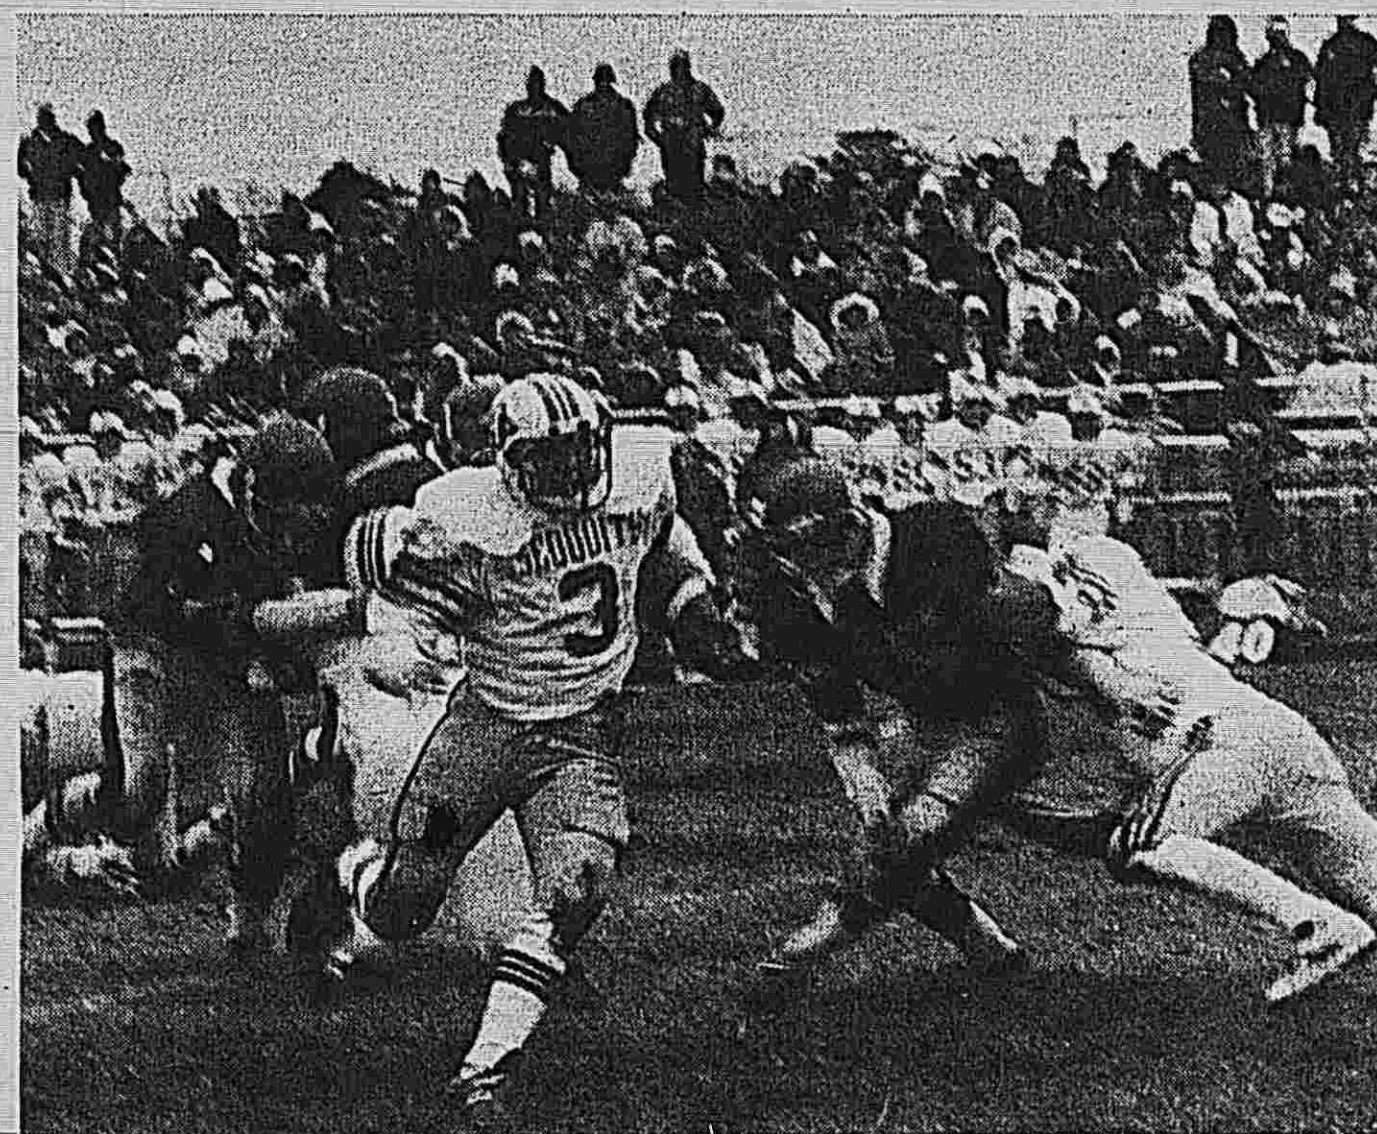

Thank You

WE WOULD LIKE to express our thanks to our children, relatives, neighbors, and friends for the Well Wishes, cards, gifts, flowers and especially all who attended the Open House and helped us celebrate our Special Day. Our heartfelt thanks!

Sequoit hockey triumphs

The Antioch varsity field hockey team won its third game of the season with a 1-0 victory over an improved Barrington team.

The first half was a scoreless battle with Antioch pressuring the Barrington defense early in the game and Barrington controlling the last part of the half.

Only line work by Antioch goalie Linda Stafford and one last minute save by Tracy Manuel kept Barrington off the scoreboard.

Early in the second half Wendy Vosr assisted by Lenore Frydrychowicz, scored what proved to be the winning goal of the game.

The Antioch varsity football team outrushed Round Lake to swamp the Panthers 28-8, in a game played in unseasonably cold weather, at Round Lake, on Saturday, Oct. 24.

Antioch put their first score on the board with 5:33 left in the first quarter when Mike Kotlinski made a touchdown and Derek Olsen's kick was good.

With 6:44 to go in the first half, Scott Poulter completed a pass to Bob Thain in a 14 yd. play that led to a touchdown but the conversion kick was deflected, making the score Antioch 13, Panthers zip, at halftime.

Kotlinski took another one over with 7:41 left in the third quarter and with Olsen's kick good, Antioch went up on the boards 20-0.

Another third quarter touchdown by Kotlinski was set up by Craig Sheedlo's interception which he returned to the five yd. line.

Kotlinski took the conversion over to add two more points on the Antioch side. That was the end of Antioch's scoring.

Round Lake came to with 4:44 left in the final quarter when a 44 yd. pass and a two point conversion put their one and only score on the board.

Antioch rushed 56 times to gain 322 yds. and Round Lake tried 24 times to gain 59 yds.

The Sequoits had 17 pass attempts with eight completions, gaining 62 yds. and the Panthers passed 50 times, completing 17 for 23 yds.

Kotlinski had 19 carries for 124 yds, three touchdowns and one, two-point conversion.

Sequoit hockey triumphs

The Antioch varsity field hockey team won its third game of the season with a 1-0 victory over an improved Barrington team.

The first half was a scoreless battle with Antioch pressing the Barrington defense early in the game and Barrington controlling the last part of the half.

Only fine work by Antioch goalie Linda Stafford and one last minute save by Tracy Manuel kept Barrington off the scoreboard.

Early in the second half Wendy Voss assisted by Lenore Frydrychowicz, scored what proved to be the winning goal of the game.

dy Lehn had one carry for one yd. and John Silianoff had one carry for three yds.

Poulter's pass record was 50 percent and Thain was the leading Antioch receiver, making five catches for 53 yds. and one touchdown.

Antioch to host district

Antioch Community High School will host the IHSA District Volleyball Tournament on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 28-29.

Antioch and Round Lake open up the tournament at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday. The second match will see Grant and Grayslake tangle 25 minutes after the completion of the Round Lake - Antioch match.

The finals will be held on Thursday, Oct. 29 at 7:30 p.m.

The winner of the Antioch District will advance to the Rockford East Sectional and will play the winner of the Rockton Sectional.

Round Lake is the favorite in the local tournament, but any one of the four teams are capable of winning the trophy and advancing to the Rockford East Sectional.

Round Lake has played a steady game, but Grayslake has come on strong in the last half of the season. Grant has always done extremely well in the local tournament.

Antioch could be a real dark horse if they can get their game going with some consistency. Regardless of who represents the local area, there should be two nights of outstanding volleyball.

CANCER CLASS

St. Therese Hospital and the Lake County Unit of the American Cancer Society will co-sponsor a seminar on breast self-examination held in the community room of the St. Therese Area Trauma Satellite, Route 59, Lake Villa, on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 7:30 - 9 p.m. For further information call (312) 356-6600 (St. Therese Satellite) or (312) 578-2702 (Hospital's Education Department).

OPEN HOUSE

On Sunday, Nov. 8, Carmel High School for Girls and Carmel High School for Boys will host an open house at the school located in Mundelein. Doors will be open from 2 until 5 p.m. for prospective students and their families, and for anyone else who may be interested. There will be a Mass at 2 p.m. and tours of the building will begin at 2:45 p.m. The open house is designed especially to help September, 1982 freshmen become acquainted with Carmel.

Offensive Line Coach Del Pechauer commended the interior linemen for the best performance of the year, listing: Kevin Kovach, Ed Jorgensen, Chris Becker, Ralph Buxton, John Lloyd and Kris Vogt.

Defensive standouts were Dean Berkiel with five tackles, three assists, one interception and two passes knocked down; Steve Sheedlo, One interception, two passes knocked down.

Sequoit Coach Steve Wapon said, "I was not surprised that the Panthers went to the air so much. Their quarterback has a good passing arm and they have good receivers."

On Saturday, Oct. 31, it will be trick or treat time for Antioch who will play Grant in Antioch.

Antioch bowlers donate

Marty Padjan, co-owner of the Antioch Bowl, representing the Chicagoland Bowling Proprietors Assn., presented the donations collected from the Beat The Champs Contest to local organizations.

In December, each year, the Chicago Sun Times sponsors the Beat The Champ Contest.

League bowlers contribute 50 cents and bowl against scores bowled by two professional bowlers.

The money collected from the bowling alleys is then donated to organizations in their local area.

Last year Antioch Bowl had 35 leagues represented with a total of 1,163 entries.

The top man and woman bowler in the establishment advanced to the sectional.

Antioch's representatives were Dave Gales and Audry Lahr.

The organizations receiving donations in the area are The Antioch Little League, represented by Denis Flaschner; the Antioch Viking Football, represented by Nick Papadakis; The Antioch Rescue Squad, represented by Dave Heath and the Antioch Firefighters Assn., represented by Vern Burdick.

WE WOULD LIKE to express our thanks to our children, relatives, neighbors and friends for the Well Wishes, cards, gifts, flowers and especially all who attended the Open House and helped us celebrate our Special Day. Our heartfelt thanks!

The thoughts at Lakeland Newspapers have already turned toward Christmas as Lakeland Newspapers has already begun receiving entries in its annual Christmas Story Contest.

Entries in the Christmas Theme Contest will be accepted in three age groups. Class I will be children ages five to eight. They will draw a picture on 8 1/2 by 11 inch white paper on the theme: "Christmas At My House." Drawings may be done in crayon, marker or pen.

Class II will be for children ages nine to 13. They are asked to submit a theme, 500 words or less on "The Meaning of Christmas."

Class II is for ages 14 to adult and will be a theme, 500 words or less on "What Christmas Means To Me."

entries will be published in Lakeland Newspapers. Entries can be sent to Lakeland Newspapers, Box 268, Grayslake, Ill. 60030.

Plan 1982 fair

The 1982 Lake County Fair will be held July 28 through Aug. 1, according to fair association officials.

The annual event is held at the Lake County Fairgrounds, near Rtes. 120 and 45, east of Grayslake.

The schedule of events will be confirmed over the winter and premium books, containing details about entering the fair competitions and a schedule of events, will be published in April.

Information about the 1982 Lake County Fair may be obtained by contacting Krumrey at P.O. Box 216, Grayslake, IL 60030.
